CANDIDATES' CLAIMS IN MANIFESTOS

Ensuring that candidates' claims allow for fair elections

The Returning Officer has ensured to the best of her ability that all claims made in manifestos are true: she advises, however, that Members acquaint themselves with the commonly-used terms below in order that they are not misled. The list begins with five standardised terms for the most substantial claims and ends with seven for the least substantial. Members may wish to consider other similar words used as holding the same meanings and draw inferences from the fact that a candidate has been unable to make the most substantial kinds of claims.

Stronger claims

Raised - the candidate must have produced a contract on which they have been the primary signatory, to claim to have raised a sum of money.

Brought - the candidate must have produced an acceptance e-mail or letter addressed to them, to claim to have brought the Society a speaker.

Confirmed - the candidate must have produced written evidence either that a contract is being drawn up for a confirmed sum of money or that a speaker has accepted an invitation and provided a date. This date may be subject to change or cancellation.

Organised / run - the candidate must have produced substantial evidence, such as contracts, correspondence and testimony, that they were in control of an event, its inception and its development.

Responsible for - the above, or the candidate, must have proven primary responsibility for the content of a claim

Weaker Claims

Assisted / helped - to raise / bring etc. The Returning Officer deems there to be sufficient proof that a candidate has contributed substantively, but insufficient to prove that they have had primary responsibility.

Likewise such terms as: facilitated, coordinated, supervised, oversaw.

Invited/contacted - proof has been provided

Weaker claims will be used often in manifestos even by good candidates: usually only candidates for Office will be able regularly to make "stronger claims". The distinction is nonetheless worth making.

Candidates' own spelling, punctuation, and grammar have not been corrected in manifestos.
