The President states their intention to move that the Standing Committee pass the budget for the Burns Night social on Wednesday 23rd January.

The President-Elect mentions that the Standing committee might wish to check on the Guerrilla band that is expected to play a live Ceilidh at the Burns Night social. The President agrees that the committee should investigate this.

The President-Elect expresses their concern about the prospect of the Guerrilla band arriving in military outfit. They further add that The Elected Member (Mr Rai Saad Khan, Christ Church) responsible for the organisation of the Burns Night social should check with the band.

The Bursar recommends that the Standing committee pass with that amount of money for time and space of that value.

The President moves that the Standing Committee pass the budget for the Burns Night Social on Wednesday 23rd January 2019, subject to the alterations discussed in the earlier meeting of the Finance Committee and the accounts presentation to the Standing Committee on Monday 4th February 2019

The motion passes nem. con.

The President closes the meeting at 16:37
